DAY ONE

Cape Naturaliste to Boulder Pt. & Mt William

Distance: 12.5 kms | 4.5 hrs | Grade: 2-3, Easy-Moderate

We depart Launceston's Hotel Grand Chancellor, at around 7:30am. On the way to the north-east coast we pass through Lilydale and the Pipers River wine region, before stopping by at the beach side village of Bridport for a short break.

It's then on to Mt William National Park, and the white sands of Cape Naturaliste – the most northern point of our 4-day trek. Our first few hours are spent entirely on the beach, pleasantly easing into our own natural walking pace and rhythm. On the way, you'll see resident sea birds – including Oystercatchers and Hooded Plovers. Your guides will also be able to decipher any bizarre looking ocean life that has washed ashore with changing tides e.g. cuttlebones, urchins and shark eggs.

Following afternoon tea, we head inland on a one-hour return walk to the summit of wukalina /Mt William. At an elevation of 216 mtrs, this is the highest point in the region, providing walkers with far-reaching panoramic views encompassing our first two days of walking and beyond.

On a good day, the Furneaux Island Group stand proud as lofty remnants of an ancient land bridge that once connected Tasmania with mainland Australia. Returning to the bus, we then head to our accommodation to unpack and settle in. Your guides may swap the order of the walks around on the day depending on weather and sunset times, if so, you will enjoy your lunch with a lovely view from the summit of Mt William.*

This evening we enjoy pre-dinner nibbles, before a delicious two-course meal prepared by our guides.

DAY TWO

Boulder Point to Deep Creek & Picnic Rocks

Distance: 14 kms | 5-6 hrs | Grade: 3, Moderate

After breakfast and lunch making, we head out on our longest day of walking. Returning to Boulder Point at the far end of Stumpy's Bay we walk south on a lovely coastline featuring successive small coves protected by rocky headlands. This section is notable for its abundant large granite boulders covered in bright orange lichen. This famously contrasting palette is a photographer's paradise. It's easy to lose track of time exploring rock pools and intricacies of such a spectacular landscape.

We soon reach the long sandy stretch of Cod Bay, one of the more remote sections of our walk, before picking up a series of inland tracks which cut across coastal heathland vegetation. These tracks are often ablaze with wildflowers and orchids in early spring. For lunch, we enjoy a lovely secluded nook – with an opportunity for a swim – before continuing around a hidden lagoon encircled by open marsupial lawns. Here we keep an eye out for Wombats, Black Swans, and Tasmanian Native Hens – an endemic ground dwelling bird species.

On arriving at Deep Creek, depending on water levels, it may be necessary to make a shallow wade across a small outlet to reach our designated afternoon tea stop and the completion of our day's walking. Again, in good weather – this is a lovely spot for a quick refreshing dip. If energy and time permit, some may choose to continue on along the next stretch of beach for an additional 20 minutes of idyllic beach walking, to the prominent rock formation of Picnic Rocks. Here the bus will meet the group, before returning to our accommodation.

This evening's dinner will consist of nibbles, followed by an excellent two-course meal prepared by your guides.

DAY THREE

Eddystone Point to Anson's Bay

Distance: 10 kms | 4-5 hrs | Grade: 2-3, Mod.

Today's walk is full of highlights. We start at Larapuna / Eddystone Point, which is adorned with its beautifully grand lighthouse, built in 1889 from local granite. This natural promontory is a site of great significance to Aboriginal and European Tasmanians, and we have time to explore the areas wonderful natural and man-made attractions.

Leaving the lighthouse, we walk to an expansive dune swept beach, often teeming with birdlife. Here we may observe albatross, gulls, terns and gannets – or perhaps migratory species like short-tailed shearwaters or ruddy turnstones.

The rest of the day is spent enjoying seemingly endless coves – each worthy of their own picture-perfect postcard. There are numerous shelly beaches to inspect, and lovely small bays for swimming. This area also boasts some of the more interesting rock formations of the trip, awaiting decipherment from a creative types' imagination.

After passing across another dune swept beach, we finish our day at Anson's Bay – wading a narrowing in the lagoon to reach our designated afternoon tea spot before meeting up with the bus.

We return to our accommodation for one final relaxing night – enjoying pre-dinner nibbles and a fabulous two course meal prepared by your guides.

Your guides may swap days 3 & 4 depending on weather and group dynamic. If so, it is lovely having a coffee in the township of St Helens with time to explore local artisan and produce stores. It is also a nice way to break up the beach walking days.

DAY FOUR

Humbug Point Loop

Distance: 10 kms | 4 hrs | Grade: 2-3, Easy-Mod

This morning we depart slightly earlier for our final day's walk. Today's hike is a diverse mix of interesting landscapes within the Bay of Fires Conservation & Recreation Area. This walk is a hidden gem - a local's secret. Consisting of historic Xanthorrhoea grass trees, sclerophyll forest and an array of wildlife, you'll encounter ocean views from a higher vantage point and walk through a dynamic coastal environment above the beach.

Beginning at Moulting Bay, we walk a small stretch of beach around the point towards the Georges Bay inlet, here you will have views of St Helens Oyster farm, Lease 65 and across the bay towards the township of St Helens and St Helens Point Conservation Area.

As we traverse higher we encounter a woodland environment, home to many bird species and providing glimpses of the ocean and coastline through the tall trees. Somewhere along here we will select a suitable shady lunch spot, and maybe take the opportunity for one last refreshing swim.

Passing over a forested hill, it's not much farther until we reach the end of our loop. This is a beautiful place to finish, before slipping back into the "real-world." We wave goodbye to the white sand and orange rocks of the Bay of Fires, before returning to Launceston via beautiful St Helens.

*If your guides decide to swap days 3 & 4, you will return to Launceston from Anson's Bay via Bridport.
